Workshop of PIGE to the producers in electro-technical industry – 25 February 2014 – WP 7.3

According to WP 7.3, PIGE has organized a workshop (25 February 2014) to the producers in electrotechnical industry, in order to disseminate the ELEVET project outcomes. The meeting has been organized in Tele and Radio Research Institute in Warsaw (Ratuszowa 11).

Institute director, Józef Gromek, D. Sc. Eng. has opened the meeting, and presented the scope of works related to the industry, performed by the institute. The institute hires over 200 people, mainly electrical engineers and electronic engineers.

Thereafter, the chairman of PIGE - Janusz Nowak and the Project Manager of PIGE - Janusz Nowastowski have presented the current outcomes of the project and its further stages.

Most participants concerned with the courses for engineers in the new fields, including soft skills, took part in the discussion.

The issues of effective implementation of the ELEVET Project outcomes have been discussed during the workshop.
