PROJECT NEWS

MASTER PROJECT New website

We are happy to announce the launch of the project's website: www.studentstartup.how. As a result of this you will have the chance to follow updates on project results, and access a new learning portal where you can find information on the "Needs Analysis" (available soon), Toolkit and Regional Alliances.

3RD Partners meeting

The next partners meeting will take place between the 5th and the 6th of September. Hosted by Inqubator Leeuwarden, our Dutch partner. Issues to be discussed at the meeting will be revolved around the VET entrepreneurship programme, I02 (MASTER Regional Alliances) and I04 (Support Toolkit). On the second day partners will have the chance to meet the Friesland College and exchange of views of VET entrepreneurship.

This programme has been funded with support from the European Commission

ENTREPRENEURSHIP NEWS

EU Vocational Skills Week: Training at Work Award

The award aims to give visibility to excellent practices from all over the EU, draw public attention to the topic of learning throughout professional lives and new practices and policies, and to focus on the learning that takes place beyond initial education to support further skills acquisition. The winners will receive the award at the Closing ceremony of the 2nd VET week in Brussels (24/11). Deadline for submissions is on 27/09. Read more

Erasmus for Young Entrepreneurs

Erasmus for Young Entrepreneurs is an EU cross-border programme facilitating the exchange of entrepreneurial and management experience. The exchange of experience takes place during a stay with the experienced entrepreneur, which helps new entrepreneur acquire the skills needed to run small firm. The host benefits from fresh perspectives on his/her business and gets the opportunities to cooperate with foreign partners or learn about new markets.

Do you have what it takes to become an entrepreneur?

This article proposes 7 questions to ask yourself before starting a business. While Entrepreneurship is fun to talk about, it's a lot harder to be about. The fact that 8 out of 10 business fail within the first year, shows that a further background information is needed.
